

Traveling Lover

Another friday from Santa Fé to Vegas, traveling light
In the distance lights are glowing, playing my mind
Twisting and twirling my heart with every heartbeat
Your passion resides in me
Every mile I travel brings me closer
To where I really wanna be

Crying 'bout leaving you, not knowing how to say
I should have stayed with you, every night and day

Over a year ago we met at a bus stop, love at first sight
Friday arrival, Saturday Sunday fun, then another goodbye
I'm a traveling lover that leaves his footprints
Around our traveling love
Asking myself why I won't give in
Release our hearts

Crying 'bout leaving you, not knowing how to say
I should have stayed with you, every night and day

Chorus:

*I'm sure, I'm sure that we can find our way
If I stay we can be lovers all the way
We could go travel together in life
Plan our own bus-line from Vegas to.....
A beautiful life.....*

*I'm sure, I'm sure that we can find our way
If I stay we can be lovers all the way
We could go travel together in life
Plan our own bus-line from Vegas to.....
A beautiful lie.....A beautiful lie.....*
