

Where dreams have no end

You took away my sense of dignity,
Emptiness surrounds me, alone inside my heart,
Like a candle, silence burns inside of me,
My grieving soul is tearing me apart

Shattered tears, drowning myself into sadness,
Storm clouds gather, darkness all around me
As times goes by, please fade away my loneliness,
For I have wasted, what life can be

Chorus:

Destiny will take me
To paradise and forever be
Where dreams have no end
Destiny will tell me
How to live my life be free
Where dreams have no end

Honesty has broken the way of being me, straight
Your lying spirit saunters through your masquerade

Chorus:

Destiny will take me
To paradise and forever be
Where dreams have no end
Destiny will tell me
How to live my life (and to) be free
Where dreams have no end

(spoken part):

I'm trying to leave the past behind
The truths you have forsaken,
Still fight my weakened mind,
To end all the sorrow and forget
all you've taken
